Regulations

- Only Wildfowl Carvings will be accepted. No Domesticated Birds.
- A carver may enter carvings in ONE class only. Once moved up in any class, a carver cannot go backwards in class in subsequent years.
- All carvers may enter Advanced class by choice, except carvers who have qualified as Canadian Master.
- All carvers may enter Intermediate class by choice, except carvers who have qualified for Advanced or Canadian Master.

- Purchase awards are not considered to be a class. All carvers may enter the Purchase Awards. Carvers who enter birds not native to North America are required to provide reference materials to assist the Show Committee and the Judges.
- Entries are to be handmade of wood. Other materials may be used for habitat, eyes and structural purposes. Habitat and feet in Canadian Master, Advanced and Intermediate Classes must be hand-made by the carver.
- Driftwood is allowed as a base for dowel mounted birds only, in all classes.
- Cast feet/legs, stones, driftwood habitat are allowed in the Novice and Beginner Classes only.
- Carvings in all classes and categories MUST be painted, except Interpretive class, which may be finished to the carver's discretion/interpretation.
- Carvings that have NOT been entered in this show will be accepted, regardless of completion date, and be of your own craftsmanship.
- The decisions of the judges will be final. While the organizers of the competition agree to take every reasonable precaution to ensure the safety of articles submitted, it must be understood that the owners of each article are required to directly assume all risks, including an article accidentally damaged. For lost or stolen articles, the organization will provide assistance for recovery, but will not recognize any claim for payment of the value of the article or costs incurred, whether in full or in part.
